 In the Pub ***

The Family and Friends embarked on a new adventure as we gathered for the first ever Social Evening in the Pub — also known as Jo and Denys Pub.

The evening started in fine form with one of the resident bands. The five member band provided a great assortment of songs and really set the tone for a fun evening. Thank you to Patricia Deek for coordinating the wonderful performance.

Our co-host Rachel Stoparczyk, Coordinator Volunteer Services, described how The Pub operates and how volunteers support this and other activities. Pub Manager Ken Green opened the bar for us and answered questions on topics ranging from training volunteers to managing stock and other pub responsibilities.

We look forward to making this social event a summer staple of our schedule.
